Public worship at St Thomas' Millbrook has resumed!
Service this Sunday, November 8th
Remembrance Sunday
The Holy Eucharist
at 10.30 am

Owing to Covid-19 restrictions, there will be no formal Remembrance Day ceremonies at the Millbrook Cenotaph this year. A wreath, given each year in memory of those of our parish who lost their lives in the wars, will be placed at the cenotaph, on behalf of the congregation, by Joe Lunn. In addition, on Wednesday, November 11th, at 11 am, the Priest-in-Charge will toll the church bell, followed by two minutes of silence, in memory of the fallen. Prayers for peace in the world will also be offered at that time.

The Rev'd Keith Adams, former Rector of the Parish of Manvers, passed away last week. Please keep his family, and especially his sister the Rev'd Ruth Adams, in your prayers. "May he rest in peace, and rise with Christ in glory."

Upcoming online educational opportunities:

"Journey to Bethlehem" Over the season of Advent, we will visit some of the places and stories from the Hebrew Bible that tell of a people who clashed with the world around them as they struggled to remain faithful to the one God. We will see some of the places that will bring the Old Testament stories alive. At the end of our journey, we will visit the holy town of Bethlehem and the surrounding hills where shepherds still watch their flocks of sheep. This journey will consist of four one hour ZOOM sessions on Monday afternoons, beginning November 30th and concluding December 21st from 2-3 pm. An evening class is also being offered on Tuesdays, beginning December 1st and concluding December 22nd from 7-8 pm. To register please email Val Whalley at valjwhalley@gmail.com or telephone 905-925-0168.

"Learning How to See" How do we transform our biases? Authors and teachers Brian McLaren and Richard Rohr join the Rev. Dr Jacqui Lewis of New York's Middle Collegiate Church for this 6-episode series. These three public theologians will discuss how seeing is social, political and contemplative. Participants will listen to the podcasts on their own time, make notes, and then come together on Zoom. The morning class is already full, but a second class is being offered on Tuesday afternoons, beginning November 10th, from 2-3 pm (some spaces are still available). To register, contact Canon Susan Sheen at susan.sheen@sympatico.ca.

"For the Love of Creation"-- a campaign endorsed by the Anglican Church of Canada--is hosting a fall forum every Monday evening in November on Zoom (7:30-8:30 pm ET).
